A CONTRAST—THE NEGRO NORTH AND

[Atlanta Constitution, Sept. 15.]

Pans, Rockford, Carterville! Let the philanthropic friends of the negro do what they can to make him down on their memorandum books. They are names that stand not only for Republican towns in the Republic State of Illinois, but for the actual attitude of the Northern people toward the negroes.

Time again we have read in the Northern newspapers burning demonstrations of the South whites because they do not invite negroes into their parlors, or because hotel keepers and managers of theaters exercise discrimination in behalf of their patrons. Time and again we have seen petitions that the wrath of heaven might be visited upon those who refuse to associate with negroes on terms of social equality. And when some degenerate brute commits an unexampled crime, which is speedily avenged, the pretended friends of the negro fit the air with their cries charging that the whole South is given over to barbarism.

It frequently happens that when a Southern negro of standing goes to the North, he is seized upon by the phantoms and cozened and feasted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Congia, Cold. I gave it a trial, took it in all, eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at Perry and Thomas Drug Store. Regular size 50¢ and $1.00 guaranteed or price refunded.

But now we have the facts, the real situation, the attitude of the Southern people written in blood and marked by the assassination of negroes whose only crime was a desire to earn an honest living, such as honest negroes are earning in the South. The question of the negro's future is not solved by solving him into a white man's parlor, or to partake, as a guest of a white man's dinner. Over and above these social accidents and incidents, there is a crying necessity that the negro should have the privilege, nay, the right of earning his own living by honest labor and according to his gifts, natural or acquired.

We may dispute vehemently over social equality and kindred questions; it is a dispute which means nothing, so far as the future of the negro is concerned; but there can be no dispute over the fact that he has a right to earn an honest living for himself and those who depend on him. Sensible men of all parties and persuasions will agree to this. Well, he has this right in the South and is exercising it in a way and with zeal calculated to attract the attention and win the approval of all who have any practical or substantial interest in his future.

But he is denied this right in the North—Pans, Rockford, Carterville—in terms of blood and by means of assassination; in other parts of the North, in terms of proscription and by means of taboo—to apply an ancient term to a modern development. In Republican communities, in a Republican State, he is not only assassinated when he seeks to earn his living by honest labor, but he is prevented, by murderous measures, from leaving on a train and going about their business—the average Republicans of Carterville, Illinois, probably being impressed by the theory that they owed to neighboring communities the duty of cutting them off and relieving them from contact with negroes seeking to earn an honest living.

Now this, after all, is the great question in life so far as the things of this world are concerned. It is the all-important

RICE & ARNOLD

A PROCLAMATION OF ECONOMY!

FOR THE FALL AND WINTER SEASON IN MEN'S AND BOYS

CLOTHING

We are prepared to clothe you with the Lowest-Priced, right-way-made, absolutely all-wool Clothing in America. Rightly-made, it is of the famous "Vitals," brand, the only Ready-to-Wear Clothing made on such scientific basis in the world, in every detailed workroom. Perfect fitting and wear-resisting, because the inside, the "vitals," the very life of the garment is carefully made in making represents the expenditure of time and thought, and is a decided contrast to the tailoring seen in ordinary Ready-to-Wear Clothing. The articles we show are of the very newest designs that will be seen this season. Many confined exclusively to us, in the face of the above facts.

The most extraordinary feature combining our great offerings is, that we can and do sell our Clothing at less money THAN ELSEWHERE.

How can we afford to sell such high-grade Clothing for less money than elsewhere? Our answer is pure and simple: Ours is a modern store, constructed strictly on progressive plans, our Clothing is sold on the smallest margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business.

The more Clothes we sell, the greater our purchasing power, the lower our prices, that's the story in a nut-shell.

—The L. N. & R. Really Guilty?

The Democrats of Ford, all of whom desired to attend the Goebel-Bellburn speaking here September 30, applied to the L. N. & R. for a special train to bring them here so they would lose only half a day from their work, and the Railroad Company flatly refused to consider the matter, though the Ford people were willing to pay well for the train; yet on the day of the county convention here, it is well known that the L. N. & R. furnished a special train free of charge for the Hardin voters to come from Ford. Doesn't that look like the L. N. & R. is in politics some?—Winchester Democrat.

—A Manly Way to Hit 'Em on the Head.

This letter was sent to Louisville yesterday by Brown Democrat who heard Mr. Goebel's speech here on Monday:

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 3, 1893.
Editor Dispatch,
Louisville, Ky.

Sir:—Some months since I ordered your paper through the CLIMAX at Richmond, Ky., and have been following closely the policy of the paper as to the regular nominees of the Democratic party until within the past month. I have come to the conclusion that you are wilfully and corruptly trying to deceive and mislead the Democracy of the State and I desire to withdraw my patronage, (though humble it may be) from its support. I am not willing for it to come to my address and hope you will disintegrate it. I have paid for it until March 1900 but you are welcome to the advance payment.

Respectfully,
H. K. MELLON,
College Hill, Ky.

To Reside in Louisville.

Mr. John H. Chandler left on Friday for Louisville where he will practice law in partnership with Mr. Van Norman, a recent distinguished graduate of Central University and her law department. Their office is 227 5th street, opposite court square, one of the best localities in Louisville.

Cutting at Kingston.

A serious cutting affray occurred at Kingston on Friday night, and as a result Ed Winkler will probably die. As far as we can learn, the difficulty originated through the refusal of Mrs. Winkler to laundry White's clothes, certain remarks, it is alleged, that were disparaging of White being uttered by Winkler and circulated in the neighborhood. It was only a trifle, but White felt aggrieved and it is said, went to Winkler's house on Friday night and called him out. When he came out of his gate, so we hear, White stabbed him in the abdomen with a dirk. The wounded man is in a precarious condition, one of his physicians being of the belief that he cannot recover.

White remained in the vicinity for an hour and was not molested, afterwards departing and is still at large. Both parties are white.

—LATER.—Winkler died Monday.

R. N. I. & B. R. R.
Time Table No. 33 Taking Effect Sunday, June 11, 1899.

A REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE SPEAKS
HERE AND FORGETS TO LEAVE TOWN.

Mr. John Feland, of Hopkinsville, spoke at Richmond on Monday night, Sept. 19, to an audience of about 250, of whom over half were colored. A dle didn't leave for five days. Why? Don't mention it! He is a jolly, fat fellow, a pleasant speaker, with a powerful voice, but is too lazy, tired or good natured seemingly to abuse his opponents; at best only is a superficial thinker, if his effort here is a fair sample of his ability. His description on the Louisville convention was a humorous word picture, though not meritorious for its originality, whilst his comparison of candidate Taylor to Garfield and Lincoln was absurd, as it showed a similarity in only one point—all were born of poor parents—a fact that applies equally to Mr. Gobell, whose splendid upward rise from poverty and obscurity, Mr. Feland probably forgot to mention. He declared that he had rather his young sons posses all the vices of drinking, gambling, smoking and swearing—which Mr. Gobell is said to be free from—than that they should ever be compelled, as Mr. Gobell was, to kill a man. This he declared, though he guardedly admitted he would not pass judgment upon Gobell's guilt or innocence of murder, when the latter killed Sanford.

This style of magnifying the unfortunate event in Mr. Gobell's career, for which he was cleared, was ridiculous, as it was too palpably demagogic. Mr. Feland occupied but little time with live issues and merely skinned over State questions except the Gobell case, and the Election Commission from whose decision, he said, there was no appeal, which is a misrepresentation of facts. He practically admitted the L. & N. R. R. was behind the Brown movement, although such statement was superfluous. He condemned the Railroad Commission and dealt in a lot of pure bunko about the blessing of railroads whose legitimate operation no sensible man opposes. He stated that Democrats had failed to itemize their general charges of mismanagement of the state treasury, this in the face of the notorious scandals that have been unearthed by Inspector Lester, and Governor Bailey's dismissals of Republican officials for negligence, indecency and corruption.

Mr. Feland simply addressed himself to the ignorant and not to the intelligent portion of his audience in defense of his speech. At the same time it is amusing to observe his effort to stir up the negroes and ingratiate himself with the Confederate soldiers, the latter by eulogizing the heroism of one of their number. Never before in a campaign in Kentucky has a Republican praised the valor of the boys in grey, but always waved the bloody shirt, rousing the negroes to an insane frenzy by stories of Northern sacrifices to secure their freedom—and their votes! Mr. Feland first patted the negro then the Confederate on the shoulder, to the disgust of all who had sense enough to see through his game. His assault on the China School bill was still a lively defense of the present extortion of $20,000 per year from the pockets of parents of pupils of our public schools. The speech was the pleasantest but withal the most harmless piece of campaign ammunition that was ever touched off here. Mr. Feland evidently likes Madison as he had such a hilarious time with the boys he didn't get away until Thursday, although he wasn't making speeches in the interim! C. E. W.

Gen. P. W. Hardin is now being prominently mentioned for the U. S. Senate to succeed DeBoe. There are many Democrats who would be pleased to see him go there—Henderson Greamer. They will never be gratified, though, unless the general stops putting at once and mounts the raging stump for the Democratic ticket and against his ancient enemy and the party's nest-mate, J. Y. Brown.

The Cynthiana Democrat takes issue

with our assertion that if the Browns

are Democrats there is nothing for Democrats to debate with. There are many things, it thinks, between that which can be settled only by debate. For instance, whether Hallam's face is closely related to a cankerous beef-steak, whether his brother, his cousin, his sister, or his aunt went to the penitentiary, also how accurately

Mr. Owens shoots craps and whether the mention of W. C. Pollard Breckinridge is sufficient reference to him.

These are indeed momentous questions and but it appears to us that they have already been settled to the satisfaction of most people, the incidents

much be closed.

There's always hope while there's One Minute Cough Cure. An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape

and I took the first stages of consumption. One Magic Cough Cure

MARRIED.

COCKERHAM-DURRIN.—The marriage

of Rev. Harrison L. Cockerham,

C. U. '97, and Miss Emma Duesing took place on Wednesday last at the home of the bride's parents, in Louisville.

The Rev. Frank E. Fischer, a classmate of the groom, and also pastor of the Flora Heights Presbyterian church, officiated. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of golden-rod,

with which the house was decorated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duesing, of 1129 Brook street. The groom was graduated in May from the Presbyterian Seminary,

of Louisville, and has since been engaged in work at Maggard.

Mr. and Mrs. Cockerham left at 8 o'clock for St.

Helen's, for a visit to the groom's parents, after which they will be at home

Capt. Alfred Dreyfus has been pardoned by President Loubet and released from prison.

He wished to be refused to be pardoned and to make an appeal from the decision, but his physician warned him that his health

would not allow his remaining in prison. He has published a letter in which he says he cares nothing for life

without honor and intends to continue his struggle until all France convinced of his innocence.

The Automaton chess player is a wonderful thing. It plays a perfect game inside its limitations. But once outside the Automaton is a failure. Much of medical practice is based on the way as the moves of the Automaton in chess. No medical practice can compete with success outside his experience and training. For that reason the local doctor, often gives up as hopeless a case which is quite recoverable. Men still and women are brought to him for the so-called incurable and hopeless cases, which come in such as to Dr. V. Pierce, of Buffalo,

N. Y., for instance. Men who were weak lungs, obstinate cough, emaciated bodies and fevered cheeks have found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the true elixir of life.

The Golden Medical Discovery is the result of increasing the activity of the blood glands, and restoring to healthy action the digestive and nutritive organs

action of the entire system in combination to throw off disease. There is no alcohol, opium, or other narcotic, in Golden

Medical Discovery.

Mr. Chan Hinwick, of London, Canada, says of Dr. Pierce: "I am better than ever I have been now and I can

I sleep like a school boy. I think I will have never had much faith in them; but you must know that I am not a doctor, but two honest and by three doctors besides, and by one so good, so I think my medicine is the best in the world."

THE WORD "OPERATION" STRIKES TERROR TO A WOMAN'S SOUL.

Nearly always these operations become necessary through neglect. The medicines are very painful, or too frequent and excessive. It will cost you nothing if you write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for it and if you let the trouble run along it will surely cost you a great deal of pain and may mean an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham:—I had suffered for several years with female troubles and doctored until I was discharged. I felt wretched and tired of living. I had disease of kidneys, bladder trouble, dropsy and bloating, had womb trouble and a large tumor had formed; in fact all my organs were out of fix.

"Seeing a woman's letter praising your remedies, I wrote to her and she begged of me to try it, telling me all that it had done for her. I bought six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now cannot express my gratitude to you. The tumor began to come away in pieces and I got better all the time. I believe now that I am entirely cured.

"My doctors could not believe it at first, as they all had told me that my case was a hopeless one, and no human power could do me any good. They were astounded. If I can say anything that can help other women, I shall be glad to do so."

It is not safe to wait until the last moment. Head off trouble now. Don't be satisfied without Mrs.

Walton's Wise Words.

Phil Thompson is alleged to have made the startling discovery that the Gobell election bill was never passed, that the one adopted by the Senate was very different from the one passed by the House. If the old man keeps on we shall doubtless shortly hear of him peddling eggs that he found in a mare's nest.

Gen. P. W. Hardin is now being prominently mentioned for the U. S. Senate to succeed DeBoe. There are many Democrats who would be pleased to see him go there—Henderson Greamer. They will never be gratified, though, unless the general stops putting at once and mounts the raging stump for the Democratic ticket and against his ancient enemy and the party's nest-mate, J. Y. Brown.

The area was a maze of life, light and action, and the circus seemed to be the best that ever came to town."

The Journal said: "Forepaugh and Sells have got together a great circus. There is no question about that."

The Commercial Advertiser said: "Not a circus, but THE CIRCUS."

The Evening Sun said: "A wealthy successor to the Barnum and Bailey Show."</p
